

A new medal to the agricultural show in Paris 2010...

Our wine of country, Hill of the bridge of the Gard Merlot 2009 won a gold medal in his category.

Since 1870, every year during the international fair in Paris, an agricultural show selects and awards the bests French products.

It is an official show manage by the Ministry of Food, Agriculture and Fishing, which constitute a good opportunity for the French region.

Organised under the control of the Country, it obeys to a process of a short-listing and a tasting by the best people in this branch.

Figures :

- 14000 samples of wine presented to the show.
- 2000 professionals in the member of the jury.